Florida's Children First
Fighting for Children's Rights

Understanding the Issues of Child on Child Sexual Abuse
And Local Resources available
3.0 CLE Credits available

Children in state care are at greater risk than their peers to be the victims of child on child sexual abuse. How the system of care handles the victims of such abuse and the child who has a sexual behavior problem can have long-lasting effects. This course will review the findings of the statewide workgroup for DCF and provide community specific information for child welfare workers, guardians ad litem, and attorneys to help them. This training will focus on:

a. Findings of the Gabriel Myers Workgroup on Child on Child Sexual Abuse

b. Local Resources

c. How the local system of Care Responds to Child on Child Sexual Abuse

Who Should Attend:
Attorneys, GALs, Caseworkers, Supervisors, and other individuals who work directly with youth.

Date: Tuesday, September 27, 2011 9:00 am – 12:00 pm.

Place: Jacksonville Children's Commission
1095 A. Philip Randolph Blvd., Jacksonville, FL 32206

RSVP: fcf@floridaschildrenfirst.org
(Mention Jacksonville training in the subject line) or call 954-796-0860.
Register online:
http://events.constantcontact.com/register/event?llr=kcikvgeab&oeidk=a07e4tw8tnsb3de7a83

Parking: Directly adjacent to building.

Join us for our Northeast Florida Reception that evening at the Haskell Building in Jacksonville from 5:30 – 7:30 pm.

Participants are invited to join us that evening for Florida's Children First's Reception honoring children's advocates Tammy McGuire (The Foster Closet), Jackie Barnard (First Coast News), Cheryl McCall, and distinguished youth honorees. The reception begins at 5:30 PM at the Haskell Building. The suggested contribution is $100.00. The Jacksonville Awards event is one of our statewide receptions that raise funds and grow our community of child advocates. We offer a minimum rate of $25.00 for state or public interest employees that cover the value of goods and services. Please let us know in advance if you would like to attend the reception.