These child advocacy clinics are funded in part by grants from The Florida Bar Foundation, Inc., a Florida not for profit corporation (the "Foundation"). The Foundation administers the Interest on Trust Accounts ("IOTA") program mandated by The Florida Bar (an extension of The Florida Supreme Court). The IOTA program uses the interest earned on short-term client trust deposits of attorney members of The Florida Bar to foster law-related public interest programs on behalf of Florida's legal profession. All states presently have an IOTA program. In Florida, the program is mandatory. The corporation will also seek direct funding from The Florida Bar Foundation, and grants from private foundations, to support its child advocacy efforts.
