

One Child, One Attorney, One Life Made Better

The Tracey McPharlin Pro Bono Dependency Recruitment Initiative

Next Training: March 22nd

At the African American Research Library in Downtown Fort Lauderdale from 1-5pm

What? A collaborative effort of the Broward County Bar Association, Legal Aid Service of Broward County, Inc., The 17th Judicial Circuit Pro Bono Committee, and Florida's Children First to recruit, train and support pro bono attorneys to represent children in Dependency Court.

When? March 22, 2012 from 1-5pm

Where? At the African American Research Library, Michael Bienes Seminar Room
2650 Sistrunk Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33311

How? To participate, attorneys MUST enroll in Broward Lawyer's Care and attend a CLE certified Dependency Court training. Upon completion, attorneys will be matched to a child client and mentored and supported throughout the case by attorneys experienced in Juvenile Court proceedings. Pro bono attorneys will have one million dollars malpractice coverage through Broward Lawyer's Care.
