

LIFELONG CONNECTIONS:

How to Facilitate Open Contact
in Foster Care and Adoption with Maria Bates, Esq.

Fighting for Children's Rights

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 15TH | 3:00 - 5:00pm

ABOUT THIS TRAINING

Adoption attorney Maria Bates, members of Florida Youth SHINE, and an adoptive mom will explore the importance of maintaining connections to birth family for youth adopted from state care. The session will prepare participants to facilitate solid "open contact" post-adoption relationships. It will provide resources for reducing and resolving breakdowns before and after the transfer of parental rights. It will also address the ethics and advocacy opportunities in forging these relationships.

THIS IS A VIRTUAL FREE TRAINING

ABOUT FLORIDA'S CHILDREN FIRST

Florida's Children First, Inc. (FCF) is an award-winning non-profit organization that advocates to make positive systemic changes to improve children's lives. Its primary focus is on impacting the lives of children in foster care. Its work also impacts children with disabilities, those who are homeless, are immigrants, or have juvenile justice involvement. The Florida Youth SHINE program was developed to educate, empower, and support youth from foster care to become passionate advocates who amplify their voice for systemic changes.
